

CENTRAL OREGON COMMUNITY COLLEGE RECOMMENDED ANTI-RACIST READING LIST

Central Oregon Community College believes in the power of education. So we encourage you to seek out the books below and learn more about the history of racism, white supremacy and the systemic impact of slavery in the United States. This list is by no means exhaustive, and is instead intended to offer an accessible introduction to these important topics.

Most of the books we recommend are available to students, faculty and staff via COCC's Barber Library, and we've noted this availability below. You can also find most of these books through Deschutes Public Library, purchase them from the COCC Bookstore, or buy them from a special online store created for the College by local BIPOC-owned Paulina Springs Books in Sisters: <https://bit.ly/PaulinaSpringsCOCC>.

For those of you who prefer audiobooks, you can find audio editions of many of these titles here: <https://libro.fm/paulinasprings>.
