

Summer Camp Counselor (Camp Fire Central Oregon-Bend)

Camp Fire Central Oregon is looking for a motivated, creative, and enthusiastic individual, who loves having fun and inspiring youth, to join our summer staff. This is a great opportunity for a high school or college student, or anyone who loves working with kids!

SummerKids is a summer-long day camp and a long-standing Camp Fire tradition that brings youth K-5th grade together for a summer packed with hikes, songs, games, crafts and more activities that enhance each week's theme.

The Camp Counselor for Camp Fire's SummerKids program is a temporary position beginning mid-June, and running through August 16, 2014, with a flexible number of hours and schedule. You will work alongside other counselors and a director to implement our SummerKids day camp based upon Camp Fire's comprehensive national curriculum.

From June 15 through August 16, 2014, the schedule and number of hours are negotiable, up to 30 hours per week.

Duties include, but are not limited to:

- Supervision: Directly supervise and engage SummerKids participants, ages 5-12. There is a possibility that you will also supervise a youth volunteer Counselor in Training (CIT).
- Facility Management: Maintain a clean, safe facility in the school that hosts camp.
- Parent Liaison: Communicate with SummerKids parents as necessary to share day camp experiences.

Requirements:

- Experience working directly with youth
- A positive attitude

Preferred Qualities:

- Enjoys working with youth and genuinely likes kids
- Self-motivated, proactive, independent, and enthusiastic
- Good time management and organizational skills
- Engaging - relates well with people of all backgrounds and ages, including kids
- Works well as part of a small, cohesive team
